Greetings,

Find A Grave contributor Matthew Brewster has made a suggestion to you regarding your Find A Grave memorial for James Mitchem.
Link to memorial: http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=23872704

Their suggestion:

Hi,

I was wondering of you could help me with James' parentage. Some have said he's the cousin of Elizabeth Mitchem (being a son of Elijah Meacham and Elizabeth Watkins instead), instead of being her brother.

I would appreciate any insight you could give about this relationship as I'm now working through relationships with genetic genealogy and want to be sure of my assignments.

Cheers,

Matthew Brewster

NEED TO DO MORE RESEARCH ON MINERVA JAND AND ELIZABETH........JUST HAVE NOT DONE THIS, AS YET.

Hope this helps with your questions about James R. Mitchem. As you can see, he was a son of William and Catherine Wirt Mitchem. All of the children of Elijah and Elizabeth either stayed in Ohio or went to Indiana. No James is ever listed as being their son. So, he was a brother of Elizabeth Mitchem Butcher.

Greetings,

Find A Grave contributor Matthew Brewster has made a suggestion to you regarding your Find A Grave memorial for James Mitchem.
Link to memorial: http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=23872704

Their suggestion:

Hi,

I was wondering of you could help me with James' parentage. Some have said he's the cousin of Elizabeth Mitchem (being a son of Elijah Meacham and Elizabeth Watkins instead), instead of being her brother.

I would appreciate any insight you could give about this relationship as I'm now working through relationships with genetic genealogy and want to be sure of my assignments.

Cheers,

Matthew Brewster

Worked at the LDS Family History Center Library this afternoon and looked at the Fayette Co. OH marriage index. I can add additional Mitchem/Meacham marriages to the list you sent to me. The following:

*Charles A. Mitchem to Dora May Allen - 1903 - 7/443
*Carl Mitchem to Bessie West - 1919 - 10/417
*George Mitchem to Lena Ross - 1906 - 8/218
*Roy Mitchem to Gertrude Shaw - 1911 - 9/192
*Virgil R. Mitchem to Grace M. Tracey - 1913 - 9/420
William Macham to Mary Ellen Howe - 1856 - 1/84 (know to be Meacham)
*William H. Mitchem to Ella Conner - 1867 - 2/44
Willey Mitchem to Etta Fultz - 1890 - 5/142 (this is Wm. son of Elijah)
*Alice Mitchem m W. R. Gordon - 1890 - 5/173
Catherine Michen to Nathaniel Hill - 1854 - C/344 (Widow of old William)
*Dora Mitchem to George Herman - 1905 - 8/51
*Dorothy Mitchem to James Minshall - 1936 - 14/206
Estel Mitchem to William Reisinger - 1935 - 14/110
*Gertrude Mitchem to Arthur Matson - 1924 - 11/329
*Kate Mitchem to Henry Carl - 1890 - 5/176
Manerva Jane Mechem to Thomas Barbour - 1854 - C/336 (dau of old Elijah ?)
Malinda Mitchner to John Baughn - 1855 - 1/22 (dau of Wm. and Catherine)
Mary Ann Merchanm to John E. Frazier - 1859 - 1/256 (dau of Wm. - Catherine)
Mattie Mitchem to John W. Friddle - 1896 - 6/73 (dau of Elijah
Rose Bell Mitchner to John Wood - 1886 - 4/330 (Elijah probate lists Fred Wood)

Those with * are the ones you had already found. I think we can identify most of these. Some belong to William and Catherine Wirt Meacham/Mitchem, others to Elijah and Amanda Bennett Mitchem and the William who married Mary Ellen Howe may be the son of James and Lucinda......as yet unproven.
I have found several census records for the families of Elijah and Amanda. Even found them still in Fayette Co. in 1910. I am making copies of the records for you, but will wait to send them until I have finished reading more film.
You really got me started on Elijah and Amanda and, strange thing, I own all of the Fayette Co. census film to 1910 and never had a clue that I was missing the Elijah Meacham family. I have so many names in Fayette, Pike, and Greene that I have spent most of my time on my Conner, Bush, Popejoy, Rose, McGary, Baughn + and just ignored the Mitchem/Meacham bunch who lived in Fayette. There is another Elijah Meacham who lived in Fayette Co., 1860 I think. He was in his 60s and had a wife Polly, as I recall. His age did not fit our Elijah who married Elizabeth Wirt, so have ignored him. I do remember that his location of birth was listed as unknown. Will look him up again.
Later,
Mary

Just noted your site Verts/Vertz/Virts, etc.
Your family grouping for Isaac Wertz (born 23 Feb 1813 / Botetourt Co. VA) married on 9 Jun 1832 to Rebecca Eller with children:

Magadalena Wertz
Anna Wertz
Catherine Wertz / married / William Mitchem / 1 Feb 1830 / Montgomery Co.Va
Noal Wertz
Samuel Wertz

Please note that the Catherine Wertz who married William Mitchem in 1830, was married before her parents, Isaac and Rebecca Eller Wertz who married in 1832 ???
Catherine Wirt and William Mitchem were actually married in Montgomery Co. VA on 26 Jul 1827. They are my great-great grandparents and the marriage date published in two different books as being in 1830 is in error. I have the correct date from the vital records of Montgomery Co.
Catherine Wirt Mitchem Osborn Hill died in Harrison Co. MO in 1871. Her three husbands died in OH. Her parents are unknown to many members of the family who have researched this line for the past 30 years.
Hope you will note your error in the marriage dates and make any correction needed to your web site.
Thanks you,
Mary R. M. Nunneley

Just noted the information on the internet concerning these names. Please note that the information for Isaac Wertz (1813-1891) married Rebecca Eller has very bad errors. It shows Isaac Wertz married to Rebecca Eller 9 Jun 1832 at Botetourt Co. VA and that their daughter, Catherine Wertz married William Mitchem on 1 Feb 1830.
Hardly possible............
Catherine Wirt and William Mitchem/Meacham are my great-great grandparents. The following:
Catherine Wirt (parents unknown)
born ca 1805 - VA
died 23 Jan 1871 - Harrison Co. MO
buried Pleasant Ridge Cemetery, Harrison Co. MO
Married on 26 Jul 1827 in Montgomery Co. VA (county vital records...not a book) to:
William Mitchem/Meacham (son of Elijah and Sarah Meacham) born 17 Jan 1801 - Montgomery Co. VA (a twin to James) - Family Bible died bef 1846 - Ohio

Catherine Wirt married, also,
Nelson P. Osborn on 28 Jul 1846 - Pike Co. Ohio (vital records)
Nathaniel Hill on 23 Oct 1854 - Fayette Co. Ohio (vital records)

No know children of Catherine's marriages #2 and #3. She is buried as Catherine Hill in Pleasant Ridge Cemetery, Harrison Co. Mo.
Catherine and William Mitchem/Meacham had seven children:
Elizabeth married Adam Butcher - to Missouri
James married Rebecca Butcher Blake - to Missouri
Lucinda married Joseph Blake - lived and died in Ohio
Sarah J. married Jacob Frazier - to Missouri and died in Indiana
Malinda married John Baughn - lived and died in Ohio
Mary Ann married John E. Frazier - to Missouri and Kansas
William Harrison married Ella Ann "Elsie" Conner - to Kansas

William Harrison Mitchem (son of William and Catherine) was my great-grandfather.
Hope you will delete the erroneous information concerning my family.
Thanks much,
Mary R. M. Nunneley

Mary:

Don't forget that George Butcher below (son of Adam and Nancy Butcher) married a Sarah Hill in either Pike or Scioto County Ohio. The Mitchems and the Butcher inter-married a lot so the Hill family might have been just around the corner also.

Lots of the Butcher family went to Harrison County, Missouri also just about the same time that the John and Jacob Frasier families moved there.

Was the copy of the picture that Darlene sent you a xerox copy? Or a real photograph? If it was a real photograph, could I pay Darlene to make another copy off of her original? Instead of a copy of a copy?

I had already received the marriage date of Judah Snyder and Martha Rickey from the Rickey clan.

These are copies of the original pictures owned by and identified by Lola Myrtle Butcher Williams who currently (2002) lives in Missouri. Lola is the daughter of William Walter Butcher and Sarah Dell Beals Butcher. She was born on 16 March 1903 in Dewey, Washington Co. Indian Territory, now Oklahoma. Lola stated that her grandmother was Electa Ann Poynter who married James Butcher. She said her step-grandmother was called Sally (she was known to be Sarah Smith – mn). Lola has never heard of anyone called Harriet Lucas (supposed to be a wife of James Butcher – mn).

Lola has recently moved to a nursing home.

Hello Donna,
I am not a Koch family member, but have done some "looking" at this name for the following reason:
1850 Census - Pike Co. OH - Dist. 7 - Beaver Twp.
275-275

Jacob W. Koch	60	Farmer	Germany
Eve "	55		"
Jacob W. "	28	Farmer	"
Margaret "	25		"
Peter "	4		Ohio
Helena "	3		Iowa
Phillip "	6/12		Ohio
Malinda Mitchum	12	attends school	Ohio

NOTE: The listed Malinda Mitchum, age 12, is the sister of William Harrison Mitchem, my great-grandfather. He was age 7 on the 1850 census in Pike Co. and living with his married sister Elizabeth Butcher. The father of Malinda and William had died between 1844 and 1846. Was Jacob W. Koch named a guardian for Malinda?? or why was she living in his household?? I would appreciate anything you might know about the relationship of Jacob and Eve Koch to Malinda Mitchem.
Also, the following for your info:
Jacob W. Koch
born: 2 Feb 1790 - Germany
died: 4 Mar 1851
bur: Hamman Cemetery - Seal Twp. Pike Co. OH

Anna Eva Koch - wife of Jacob
21 Apr 1854 (apparently date of death on stone)
bur: Hamman Cemetery - Seal Twp. Pike Co. OH

Thanks for your help.

MRS. MILTON BURRIS

Mercy Ellen Butcher was born in Pike county, Ohio, June 3, 1847, and departed this life July 13, 1912, at the age of 65 years, 1 month and 10 days.

She, with her parents, moved to Harrison county, Mo., in 1856, where she grew to womanhood. At the age of 30 years, at the home of her parents, she was united in holy matrimony to Milton Burris, of Harrison county, Mo., December 27, 1877. March 18, 1878, they moved to Kansas, where they bravely faced the hardships of the prairie life of this country for 36 years at which time death separated them. To this union were born seven children, of which four preceded her to the mysterious realms which are veiled from us by death. She leaves to mourn their loss a husband, three children, Edgar Burris, of Penalosa, Kans., Mrs. Rena Shipley, of Arlington, Kans., Mrs. Sadie Dix, of Nickerson, Kans. One sister, Mrs. Nancy McNamee, of Nickerson, Kans. Three brothers, James Butcher, of Hill City, Kans., George Butcher, of Nebraska, and Jacob W. Butcher, Bethany, Mo. Six grandchildren and a host of friends.

At the age of thirteen she was converted at prayer meeting and united with the Methodist church of which she was a faithful and consistent member until they moved to Kansas. Then she and her husband, Milton Burris, united with the United Brethren church of which they both were faithful workers and colaborers with all, both believers and unbelievers, showing them the way of the righteous by faithfully following the footsteps of the Master. Mrs. Burris will be missed in the Sabbath School, as she was a regular attendant. That smile, that look of joy that greeted not only her class but the whole Sunday School will be missed but not forgotten. She has given to the world the life of sacrifice which stands as a greater monument than human hands could erect. As a wife, mother and sister she was kind and affectionate, bore her pains and hardships without a murmur and was a cherished friend by all who knew her.

The funeral sermon was rendered by Rev. J. B. Carbaugh of Penalosa, and he chose the befitting words from Revelations 14th chapter and 13th verse: "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, sayeth the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." The funeral was preached at the Methodist church at Lerado July 15 at 11:30 o'clock after which the remains were laid to rest in the Lerado cemetery.

All through a life of toil
She bravely bore her task;
A trusting heart within her breast
Beat hope for her reward at last

With mother's love and mother's care
She brightened up the home,
And lightened many heavy hearts
Until her task was done.

And though our hearts are sad with grief,
Our memories still remain,
As we stopped to view the loved one
We know we'll meet again.

—A Friend.

A Statement

It has been reported that I recently refused the use of the U. B. church for funeral services. This report is unjust to me. The church was offered to the parties on conditions, and when I approached them on the matter, arrangements as to the place of the funeral had already been made.

The pulpit of this church is the pastor's, and no one can preach therein without my consent. This is church discipline, and I have good reasons for enforcing the same and giving permissions to preach on conditions. Ministers engaged in the regular work and of like faith are welcome. If any one wishes the pulpit see me.

MILTON BURRIS

Milton Burris, was born in Jackson county, Ohio, July 7th, 1840 and departed this life January 15th, 1915, at 3:20 a. m., aged 74 years, 6 months 8 days, after being an invalid for nine months.

He with his parents came to Harrison county, Mo., when a small boy.

At the age of 37 he was married to Mary Ellen Butcher at the home of her parents in Harrison county, Mo., Dec. 27, 1877.

March 18th, 1878 they moved to Kansas to the old home-stead one mile north and one and one half miles east of Penalosa, where the lived to- [illegible]

His [illegible] companion preceded him to the grave a little more than two and one half years.

To Mr. and Mrs. Burris were born seven children of which four preceded them to that rest beyond.

He leaves to mourn their loss three children, Edgar Burris, Penalosa; Mrs. Rena Shipley, Penalosa; Mrs. Sadie Dix, Blevins; One brother, G. W. Burris, Chandler, Okla.; six grand children and many friends.

He was converted when just a boy and was a faithful church worker, always being mindful to the Master at the end.

When he and his companion moved to Kansas they united with the United Brethern church of which they were both workers for the betterment of humanity, letting their lights so shine that the world might see by their faithful work that they were strict observers of the law written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

He had acquired such a knowledge of the Bible that he was at any time ready to converse intelligently on any subject pertaining to the Christian life.

When a boy he worked from place and of his own efforts acquired an education after which time he taught school several terms in Missouri, and a private school in a basement near Lerado immediately after his arrival in Kansas. Then he studied law for a time. When ready to be admitted to the bar he in his studies had learned that he could not be a successful lawyer and live the life that he desired to live.

He enlisted in the army for three years in Company M 13th Regiment of Cavalry, Mo. He was honorably discharged proving he made a good soldier. One feature of his war life was that he carried his testament all through the war.

He was a kind and affectionate husband and father, and though being an invalid for nine months he bore his aches and pains calmly, and only wished that the Master would call him from the afflictions and woes of this world.

The funeral sermon was conducted by Rev. J. B. Carbaugh assisted by Rev. C. V. Priddle of Pennalosa.

By the request of the children he chose the same befitting words that he preached the sermon from for his companion who preceded him, which was from Rev. 14th chapter and 13th verse:

"And I heard a voice from heavan saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, sayeth the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

The funeral was preached at Lerado, Jan. 17, at 2 o'clock after which the remains were laid to rest in the [illegible] cemetery.

This cemetery is located in Cypress Township 62 North; Range 28 West and in the North center part of Section 5. Recording was done by Cecil Davis, John Maize and Glen Maize. No date was given. Two hundred-eighty six recorded.

The Burris Cemetery was started with the grave of a nameless child who died while the parents were passing through in a covered wagon. Here, too, can be seen two cypress board grave markers which were prominent 75 years ago in marking graves. But fire and time has left many unmarked graves where they were used. Several years ago a grave was dug into which showed the pioneer way of burial. When lumber or a coffin was not available, the grave was dug with a ledge left about two feet above the bottom of the grave. Then poles were laid the long way of the grave, upon this prairie grass was placed; then poles were laid on the grass the short way or width of the grave. The body was placed on grass in the bottom of the grave.

Hey, Check Writers; You're Going To Change Some Habits

Some popular check writing practices, several slightly sloppy and unconventional but always so convenient, will soon go the way of the one-room school, nickels worth five cents, horse and buggy courting and numerous other things pleasant to remember.

The culprit is automation—automation in banking and it's all tied up with those black, doodly little numbers at the bottom of most checks. Actually they represent magnetic ink check routing (MICR) code symbols. The computers read those magnetic ink numbers when the checks clear a Federal Reserve bank. Thus accounts of banks with the Fed are kept electronically. The Fed is a bank for bankers. It keeps their accounts just as a local bank keeps the accounts of its customers—and it's doing it electronically now.

The deadline is Spetember 1. 1967. After that date, you're not going to be able to use a universal check and you're going to be discouraged from using counter checks. At least counter checks aren't going to be tossed around as promiscuously as they are now, even though they are already encoded. The reason is that a customer will sometimes take a counter check, scratch out the name of the bank printed there and write in the name of his own bank. The computer doesn't read what's written on the check—just those encoded numbers. Confusion results. The wrong bank gets debited.

The banks are trying to educate the public. Local banks have no choice. They have to do business with the Federal Reserve and they have to follow the rules.

Get ready to use those encoded checks all the way.

One practice hasn't been discontinued—you can still use backs of checks for note pads.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hawley and family of Phillipsburg were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hawley.

A picture postcard was received Wednesday morning by the Pioneer from Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Maydew who are visiting their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Maydew in Washington, D. C. She reports that they have been doing a lot of sight seeing, and are quite impressed with the city. They plan to fly to Kansas City, Missouri and come from there by bus arriving home today (Thursday).

Gaylon G. Butcher, Retired Farmer And Businessman, Dead

Memorial services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from Simmons chapel for Gaylon G. Butcher, farmer and businessman of the Bellaire community for many years, who retired two years ago because of declining health.

The Rev. Hilland Stewart officiated. Laura Burgess and Donna Ayres were the vocalists, accompanied by Frances Gibson.

Lloyd Mahlman, Lawrence Fryendall, Raymond Shellito, Wayne Herndon, Dean Grothaus and Paul Mace were pallbearers. Interment was in Custer cemetery.

Gaylon, youngest son of James and Sarah E. Butcher, was born Oct. 12, 1906, at the farm home north of Portis in Smith county, Kansas, and departed this life at Smith County Memorial hospital, Smith Center, Kansas, Saturday, May 13, 1967, at the age of 60 years, 7 months, and 1 day.

As a child he was taken by his parents to Graham county, Kansas, where they eventually settled on their own farm some 10 miles south west of Hill City. Here he grew to manhood, attending the Sunrise school, where he completed his formal education in 1921. He farmed with his father for some years, and then moved to Bellaire, Kansas, where he began farming for himself.

He was united in marriage to Jane Burgess October 31, 1934. To them were born two children. The couple made their home on a farm in the Bellaire community. He continued to farm the rest of his life except for one year when the family lived in Grand Junction, Colo for the benefit of the health of their son. This year was spent in carpentering. In 1951 he became associated with the Osborne County Farmer's Union elevator of Bellaire. He served that organization first as an assistant and later as manager, though he continued his farming operations. Two years ago he retired because of declining health. Last September the family moved to their new home in Smith Center.

His interests in life have centered around his family, his friends, his work and several avocations. Woodworking has been one of his specialties. He loved to travel, and the family annually spent their vacations in often lengthy journeys, which have taken them into 41 states and into Canada on a couple occasions. He also enjoyed collecting rocks and secured a large collection of interesting specimens.

He faithfully attended Sunday school and numerous revivals in the samll one-room schoolhouse, where he also went to school. After moving to Bellaire the family attended the Christian church in Lebanon.

He is survived by his wife, Jane; one son, Roger, of the home; one daughter, Wanda Keever of Phillipsburg; three grandchildren, Desby, Rodney, and Lisa Keever; two brothers, Richard Paul of Penoke and Fay of Hill City, and by a number of nieces and nephews and by many friends.

WHEAT DAMAGE being checked last Friday in Arnold Levin's field west of Kensington. Kneeling in the wheat, checking wheat stems is Howard Wilkins, Extension agronomist of Kansas State University. In the background at far left is Art Grauerholz, the next man in the foreground is unidentified, Willis Pierce and Arnold Levin. At this spot Mr. Wilkins said damage was less than one-tenth of one per cent. Less than 30 yards away he found 50 percent damage.

Much Wheat Damage But There Are Still Prospects For A Good Crop

There is much freeze damage to the 1967 wheat crop in Smith county but there is still going to be a lot of wheat. That's the opinion of Wilbur Dunavan, county agricultural agent. Mr. Dunavan made the statement after going into several fields with Howard Wilkins, Extension agronomist from Kansas State University, last Friday afternoon, and after checking numerous fields himself.

There is no pattern for the freeze damage. It's the craziest, mixed-up, helter skelter situation imaginable. In Arnold Levin's field of Scout west of Kensington Mr. Wil-

Some fields are showing a bronze tint, Dunavan said. In these fields the damage is about 90 per cent. A yellow cast is also a warning that the field is heavily damaged.

The damage seems to be less in the south and southeast parts of the county. But wheat is a hardy plant. It strives to produce seed and it will do it one way if it can't another. Freezing usually produces tillering. New plants shoot up and form heads. These mature later but they have been known to produce good yields.

Dunavan cautions about undue haste in cutting wheat or plowing

Miss Lawana Brown To Welfare Position

Miss Lawana Brown of rural Bellaire was empoyled Monday as stenographer for the Smith county welfare office. She is a graduate of Lebanon high school and has just completed a course at Brown-Mackie Business college in Salina.

Miss Brown's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown.

The position has been vacant since Mrs. Blanche Jorge retired a few weeks ago. Miss Brown was employed Monday and began her duties on Tuesday.

Letters Bring In Money For Higley Field Lighting Project

Late last week some 200 letters were mailed to people and businesses in the county asking for contributions to the lighting fund at Higley Field, the Smith county fairground. The response was good, although, locally, probably one in ten responded.

The fund is growing but it is just getting started. Big contricutors have it well on the way but a lot of small contributors are needed.

The total amount of local record that has been received is $680 and that includes all amounts listed above and previously.

Here is a list of contributors not listed previously and there may be some who left money at other places in the county so that there is no accounting at the present: Jean Woods $5, Meadowlard 4-H club $5, Louis Overmiller $10, Eli Detwiler $5, Barbara Joan Hill $10, Arden Dierdorff $10, Gerald Burgess $15, Clark's Car Wash $5, Vern Albrecht $5, Solomon Valley 4-H $5, Heide-Christolear Construction Co. $25, Clyde Colwell $10.

Smith County Farmers Union $100, Hal C. Smith $10, J. H. Currey $5, Carpenter Sand and Gravel $5, J. L. Bonecutter $15, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carr $5, Chandler Livestock Auction $10, Loyal Albrecht $10, Smith County State bank $100.

Still another $2,800 is needed to September 22, 1897, Bethany, Harrison Co., Missouri to William Walter Butcher b. September 4, 1873, Bethany, Harrison Co., Missouri; d. March 11, 1946, Lajunta, Colorado, son of Electa Ann Poynter and James Butcher.

Sarah Dell Beals Butcher

Sarah Dell Beals Butcher was the fourth child born to Elliza Jane (Thompson) Beals and Martin V. Beals. She was born June 14, 1880, near Pattonsburg, Daviess Co., Missouri.

Sarah Dell left Missouri with her husband, William Walter Butcher and her sister Maggie D., her husband, Cornelius Franklin along with his parents and brother. They left in a covered wagon in about 1899 or 1900 and crossed the Missouri River on ice. They had planned to go to Billings, Oklahoma to either homestead or work in the cotton fields.

Sarah and Walter spent some time in Dewey, Washington Co., Oklahoma, where they lost a child, Ora Virgil and he is buried in the Dewey Cemetery. They had their next child, Lola Myrtle, born in a tent on Three Mile Creek. They lived on the Caney River when Lola was little. Lola tells of a flood that was coming down the Caney River. Her mother carried her up the hill, put her down and went to get some things from the tent. Then she would go back up the hill, check on her and so forth. Her father, Walter, just barely made it out of the tent before it was washed away. He was able to save a box with a hen and some baby chicks.

They also lived at Hill City, Kansas where Walter's parents lived. They lived at Sharon Springs in a sod house that they built. Part of it was built underground. It had one room with a door and 2 windows showing. They had one bed that they all four slept crosswise in. The mom and dad had a trunk that they rested their feet on. Walter was Sheriff up in Sharon Springs. He also ran a pool hall.

The family eventually moved to La Junta, Colorado. Their daughter, Lola got married and moved to La Junta first, then Sarah and Walter moved there about 1939. They had a house in town where Walter raised bees and gardened. Sarah got a job cleaning in a hotel. She and Walter fished a lot too. It is said of Sarah that she would rather fish than eat. She was a real outdoor person and loved to be in the garden or on the river bank fishing.

Lola Myrtle Butcher

Lola Myrtle Butcher was the second child born to Sarah Dell (Beals) Butcher and William Walter Butcher. Lola was born March 16, 1903 in Indian Territory, which is now Dewey, Washington Co., Oklahoma. Lola was born in a tent probably on Coon Creek. Her mother assured her that it was a very nice and sturdy tent with a wood floor and a stove in it.

Her parents had lost their first son, Ora Virgil, soon after they had stopped at Dewey. Virgil had been sick with summer complaint all the way from Missouri. One thing I have heard about summer complaint is that it is caused by different drinking water. When Lola was seven, the family went up to Hill City, Kansas where her father's parents lived. Her father, Walter, had been a policeman in Dewey. They moved to Sharon Springs where her father was a sheriff. They stayed in Sharon Springs for quite awhile.

Lola became acquainted with a friend whose brother eventually became her husband. After Lola had completed her junior year, she went with a couple of kids to see her friend and met her brother, DeWitt. They met him on the road. He had another girl with him in the buggy, bet he says when he met Lola, he fell first thing. They meet in 1921, and were married four years later in 1925, in Sharon Springs, Kansas at her parents' home. In fact, DeWitt's sister and Lola had a double wedding.

Lola taught school for four years. Her first and fourth year, she taught at Grand Oak, one year in Colorado and one year in Grand Prairie, Kansas.
They moved to LaJunta, Colorado and lived there for awhile. Lola was having trouble with headaches and her doctor thought it might be the altitude. She, her children, and her parents came down to Missouri to visit her sister Luella Ethel (Midge). DeWitt told her to look around for a place. She looked at several different places. They did buy a place in 1941. They moved back to Missouri in 1945. Lola was reluctant to move back because her sister died in 1943 and she just didn't know if she wanted to live there. But they moved back and they owned about three different farms. In the wintertime, DeWitt drove a school bus and in the summer he worked at a pickle factory.

When DeWitt passed away, Lola sold her farm and moved into town. She is staying with her son and daughter-in-law, Roy and Carolyn Williams as of this writing. Lola has had a couple of falls lately and her children are taking ever such good care of her.

Mary–

Would you like to take this one or should I?

She was searching Jackson County for information. I saw her note in a Jackson County web site. She thinks that my James R. and her James are the same. If you would like to contact her I will introduce you and give you her e-mail address. I would be very happy to answer her, but I though you might want the pleasure.

Let me know!
